Experience

Deploayy.co

Founder · MAY 2023 – PRESENT

I'm currently running Deployyy.co, a web design and development agency for B2B SaaS. As the owner I manage employees and freelancers while personally being responsible for positioning, messaging, design, promotional videos, branding, and lead generation.

- Served 30+ clients globally
- Grew from a solo venture to fully integrated 3 person team
- Head of operations covering brand identity, UI/UX design, consulting etc.

Quandox

Partner · MAR 2024 – FEB 2025

Acting as a creative partner at Quandox, I supported diverse client accounts by designing custom websites and web app interfaces while delivering versatile graphic design assets.

- Designed and developed high converting landing pages for Quandox and their clients
- High-level consulting for 5+ German SMBs

Five2Nine Collective

Graphic Designer · DEC 2021 – MAY 2023

As a graphic and motion designer at Five2Nine Collective, a boutique South African agency, I developed brand identities and ad campaign videos while producing social media creative.

- Designed social media posts and advertisements
- Built brand identity's for South African SMBs
- Created motion graphic videos for South African enterprises like Hollard, Mercedes SA etc.

Pragma

Intern Marketer · DEC 2019 – FEB 2020

During a three month marketing internship at Pragma, a prominent South African engineering firm, I assisted in producing and editing internal videos while supporting targeted digital ad campaigns.

★★★★★

He executes extremely fast. Things moved much quicker than I expected, without the quality suffering. Communication was clear throughout: he explained his choices, took feedback well and I always knew where things stood. If you need a brand or website that actually fits your business, I'd recommend Adriaan without hesitation.

We had a blast working together with Adriaan! He's very product-minded and takes the time to really understand your product first, before jumping into any designs. Really liked this approach for getting the story right to our website visitors. Once this story was nailed, his team and himself created wonderful designs. Also very happy with how everything was developed. Definitely recommend!

Adriaan has been extremely helpful with our Webflow website. He's very hands-on and fast. You can count on him to get the job done. And he's a great guy to work with too!

Adriaan has been our go-to for everything website development. This guy cooks!! From design to dev, his standards are among the highest I've encountered in the UX/UI space. He actively thinks along with us, suggesting smart design angles and improvements instead of just executing.

★★★★★

He's a talented designer who's fast, responsive and easy to work with. He brings a good balance of creative design and practical thinking to the table - always considering how the site will actually be used and how it supports the goals of the business
